Kenſington, November 3.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, has been preſented to His Majeſty by —— Herbert, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Earl of Northumberland, Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to profeſs, in your Royal Preſence, the Joy of our Hearts at the glorious Efforts and Succeſſes of the Britiſh Arms, in every Part of the World, to which they have been directed by your Majeſty's paternal Care of your People, and the Wiſdom of your Councils.

We adore the Goodneſs of Providence, in rewarding the many Royal Virtues which diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Reign with ſuch an Accumulation of Glory, as the Britiſh Hiſtory cannot parallel.

The domeſtic Peace and Security of theſe Iſlands, amidſt the victorious Progreſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in Germany, in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, on the Coaſt of Africa, in various Parts of the Ocean, and in the Heart of the Enemy's Poſſeſſions in America, manifeſt the extenſive and irreſiſtible Power of a Britiſh Monarch, ruling in the Hearts of His Subjects.

We ſincerely regret, that ſo good a Cauſe as that of your Majeſty in the preſent War, could not be defended without the Loſs of a General, whoſe early Virtues and Abilities have rendered his Memory dear to his Country. But we bleſs God, and congratulate your Majeſty, that many of his Survivors are equal to the Execution of your Wiſe, Vigorous, and Salutary Meaſures; and permit us, Sir, to rejoice in the Conduct of one, to whom it is the peculiar Happineſs of this County to ſtand related, who, with a Roman Spirit, preferred the public Service to the Enjoyment of his noble Family and Fortune, and in a diſtant hazardous Enterprize, had the Honour of completing the important Conqueſt of Quebec.

May your Majeſty long ſurvive this juſt and neceſſary War! May you have the Glory of crowning the Wiſdom of your Councils, and the Valour of your Forces, with an honourable and laſting Peace! And may this Nation ever render to your Majeſty, and to your Royal Poſterity, that Tribute of Duty and Gratitude, which is the moſt valuable of all your Rights, and which was never ſo univerſally and cheerfully paid, as in your Majeſty's happy Reign.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirty-Firſt Day of October, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

The following Addreſs of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh having been tranſmitted by their Moderator to the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſſe, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the ſignal and uninterrupted Succeſs, which, during the Courſe of this Year, hath attended the Arms of Great Britain, and particularly, upon that great and deciſive Event, the Reduction of Quebec. With Hearts full of Reverence and Gratitude, we adore Almighty God, who hath inſpired your Councils with Wiſdom, and your Troops with ſuch diſtinguiſhed Valour; and it is with unfeigned Pleaſure that we behold the Britiſh Arms triumphing over all your Enemies.

At the ſame Time that we have the Satisfaction to ſee the Pride and Power of France humbled in almoſt every Part of the World, we cannot, without the utmoſt Indignation, think on their preſent Attempt to invade theſe Kingdoms; which we muſt conſider as the laſt and deſperate Effort of their Revenge.

Animated with Zeal for our holy Religion, and our moſt excellent Conſtitution, and inviolably attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, we think ourſelves called upon to exert ourſelves in inſpiring your Majeſty's Subjects with the ſame Sentiments.

We the Miniſters of the Goſpel, by the conſtant Intercourſe which we have with the People under our Charge, have the beſt Opportunity of knowing their Principles and Spirit; and we ſhould do them great Injuſtice, did we not declare to your Majeſty, that on this Occaſion they diſcover the warmeſt Gratitude to God for theſe unparalleled Succeſſes with which He hath bleſſed your Arms; that they are full of Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and that they wiſh for nothing more than to be enabled to repel any Inſult that may be offered to theſe Kingdoms by the Arms of France.

Whilſt the far greater Part of the military Force in this Kingdom is wiſely and neceſſarily employed for protecting thoſe Places which are of chief Importance; we can aſſure your Majeſty, jeſty, that the Bulk of the People ardently deſire to give all the Aſſiſtance in their Power for ſecuring and guarding this Iſland; and if they ſhall be ſo far honoured by your Majeſty, as to be furniſhed with Arms, we are perſuaded they will employ them in ſuch a Manner as your Majeſty ſhall direct, for the Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government, and for preſerving that Religion and Conſtitution, which to every true Proteſtant and Briton muſt be dearer than Life itſelf.

[Price Three-Pence.]

That the God of all Grace may long preſerve your Majeſty's moſt precious Life; that he may pour down His beſt Bleſſings upon your Royal Family; that Divine Wiſdom may ever guide your Councils, and the Lord of Hoſts go forth with your Arms; and that this War may be happily and ſucceſsfully conducted, till it iſſue in an honourable and laſting Peace: Theſe are the ſincere and daily Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
Your Majeſty's
Moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects,
The Miniſters and Elders of the Preſbytery of Edinburgh.

Signed in Name, in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Preſbytery, by Edinburgh, Henry Lundie, Moderator.

Hague, October 30. By Letters from Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters, it appears, that the Army, under his Serene Highneſs's Command, was, on the 25th Inſtant, ſtill encamped at Kroſdorff, was well ſupplied with Proviſions, and, for the Seaſon of the Year, remarkably healthy. The French ſtill keep their Poſition about Suſſen, Dodenhoſen, and Wetzlar. On Sunday the 21ſt paſt, M. de Contades detached from his Army Six Battalions and two Regiments of Cavalry, to reinforce the Corps of M. d'Armentiers. On the 23d Colonel Luckner attacked a ſtrong Poſt which the French had at Niederbrechen, to cover their Convoys of Forage, and entirely defeated them, killing a Lieutenant Colonel, Major, 2 Captains, and between 40 and 50 inferior Officers and private Men, and taking an Officer and 71 Men Priſoners, together with 99 Horſes, and 112 Waggons loaded with Forage.

Letters of the 23d paſt, from Prince Henry's Head Quarters at Torgau, mention, that his Royal Highneſs had marched to that Place on the 16th, finding it neceſſary to quit his ſtrong Camp at Strehla, on Account of General Rebentiſh's retiring from Schuldau, by which Means the Auſtrians had gained his Flank, and might attempt to cut off his Communication with Torgau. General Rebentiſh could not be ſupported in his Poſt without weakening too much the main Body. His Royal Highneſs's preſent Camp is ſtrong and well placed, the Left extending itſelf to the aforeſaid Town, with a large Moraſs before Part of it, the Flank covered by the River Elbe, as the Right is by a Wood, at two Engliſh Miles diſtant from the Town. Marſhal Daun's Camp is at Belgern, and he has puſhed a conſiderable Body by his Left, in order to get between Prince Henry and Leipſick.

By the laſt Accounts from the King of Pruſſia, he was on the 20th at Sophienthal; and the Ruſſians and Auſtrians remained in their ſtrong Camp on the Heighths between Mechau and Gros Oſten, with the Bartſch, a ſmall River, in their Front. His Pruſſian Majeſty had detached General Venner towards Coſel; upon whoſe approach, the Auſtrians raiſed the Blockade, and retired to Ratibor, being followed cloſely by General Venner.

Dublin, October 25.

Laſt Monday being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Coronation, the Great Guns were fired in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Night there was a Play, given by His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the greateſt Demonſtrations of Joy were expreſſed throughout the City, by Bonfires, Illuminations, &c. And Tueſday being the Anniverſary of the Iriſh Rebellion in 1641, his Grace the Lord Lieutenant proceeded in the uſual State to Chriſt Church, attended by the Houſe of Peers, Judges, &c. and eſcorted by a Squadron of Horſe, where a moſt excellent Sermon was preached by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert upon that Occaſion; the Sword of State was carried to and from the Church by the Earl of Shannon. After his Grace's Return to the Caſtle, the Great Guns in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies of Small Arms from the Regiments of Foot on Duty, drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Admiralty Office, November 2.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Twenty-ſixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information hath been ſent to this Office from the Collector of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms at Lancaſter, That the Ketch called the Betty of Leverpool, belonging to Mr. Tarleton of that Place, on her Paſſage from Jamaica, on the 13th of laſt Month, made the Port of Ramſay in the Iſle of Man, at Seven o'Clock at Night, when they had hard Gales of Wind, by which their Main Top Sail was Split; after which they ſtood to the Southward all Night, and in the Morning ſpoke to a Sloop, who told them ſhe was bound towards Pile of Fowdrey, upon which they ſteer'd after her, and at half paſt One made Land, when they lay to, waiting for the Flow of the Tide, and at half paſt Three the ſaid Ketch ſtruck, and ſoon after overſet.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 23d Day of October, 1759,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the 14th of April laſt, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of this Inſtant October.—And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome longer Time.—His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and and Command, that no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (except the Maſter General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the ſaid 29th Day of this Inſtant October, preſume to tranſport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or Ship or Lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the reſpective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act paſſed in the Twenty-Ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, entituled, "An Act to impower His Majeſty "to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to "enforce the Law for impowering His Majeſty to "prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any "Sort of Arms or Ammunition, and alſo to empower "His Majeſty to reſtrain the carrying Coaſtwiſe of "Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or "Ammunition." And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Blair.

General Poſt-Office, Auguſt 20, 1759.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That, for the Time to come, no Perſon whatſoever will be permitted to paſs from England, in any of the King's Packet Boats, ſtationed at Harwich or Dover, without firſt obtaining a Paſſport from one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All Perſons, intending to return to England in the ſaid Packet-Boats, are in like Manner to produce a Paſſport from His Majeſty's Miniſter at the Hague, or from His Majeſty's Conſul or Vice-Conſul at Fluſhing, before they can be received on Board.

By Command of the Poſt-maſter General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

Cuſtom-Houſe, London, Nov. 2, 1759.

The Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms gives Notice, that he will be ready, on the 12th Day of November Inſtant, and the Four following uſual Days of Payment, to pay all Out-Port Corn Debentures that were preſented to the Commiſſioners between the 10th of September 1759, excluſive, and the 22d of the ſame Month, incluſive, without Intereſt.

The ſaid Receiver General gives this further Notice, that in Caſe any of the ſaid Debentures ſhall remain unpaid for want of being tendered for Payment on one of the five Days above mentioned, that no Intereſt will be paid thereon.

Victualling Office, Nov. 2, 1759.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wedneſday the 7th Inſtant, exactly at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, they will be ready to treat for Hogs for Sea Store for the Port of London; the ſaid Hogs to weigh not leſs than One Hundred and Twelve Pounds each.

November 2, 1759.

The Governor and Court of Aſſiſtants of the York Buildings Company do hereby requeſt all the Creditors of the ſaid Company, of what Kind ſoever, to leave an Account of their Demands in Writing, with Mr. Monteage, the ſaid Company's Secretary, at his Houſe in Red Croſs Street, over againſt Cripplegate Church, on or before the 1ſt of February next, in order to enable the ſaid Governor and Court of Aſſiſtants to come to the Knowledge of the Amount of the ſaid Company's Debts. Siged by Order of the Court,
S. Monteage, Secretary.

November 1, 1759.

This is to give Notice, That a General Court of the Governor and Company of the Mine Adventurers of England, will be held at the George and Vulture Tavern in Cornhill, on Wedneſday the 14th Day of this Inſtant November, at Twelve at Noon, for the Election of a Governor, Deputy Governor, and twelve Directors for the Year enſuing.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majeſty's Ship Brilliant, who were on Board at the taking the Boſquiſe, a French Privateer, on the 17th of April laſt, that they will be paid their reſpective Shares thereof on Board their ſaid Ship on her Return to Plymouth: Recalls for the above Ship the firſt Monday in every Month, at Mr. Orlando Manley's, Goldſmith, in Plymouth, for three Years after they are paid in Port.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majeſty's Ships Alcide and Actæon, who were actually on board at taking the Robuſte, a French Ship of War, on the 15th of September 1758, that they will be paid their reſpective Shares of the Hull and Stores of ſaid Prize, viz. Actæon, upon her Arrival at Plymouth; Alcide, at the King's Head Tavern in Fenchurch ſtreet, on Wedneſday the 19th of December 1759, where ſhe will be recalled the laſt Wedneſday, and the Actæon the laſt Tueſday, in every Month, at the French Horn in Crutched Fryars, for three Years to come.
